Investment Objective

The objective of Insinger de Beaufort Multi-Manager Balanced is to achieve long-term superior investment returns.

Exposure to the financial markets will be gained through investment in a diversified and actively managed portfolio of both internal and external specialist fund managers, who invest in a variety of assets including equities, fixed income, real estate and alternatives.

Investment Philosophy

Insinger de Beaufort believes that in the current investment environment special skills and techniques are required to generate returns and preserve capital.

Insinger de Beaufort has over 15 years experience in selecting specialist managers which we believe will be able to add value. The fund managers within IdB Multi-Manager Balanced are specialist managers with proven track records in delivering consistent and superior investment returns. Underlying managers with an absolute return bias are also included in the portfolio.
